The New England Sled Dog Club will hold its Training Clinic on Saturday, November 12, and Rig Race on Sunday, November 13, 2005, at Hill Village, New Hampshire.

To participate, everyone must sign a waiver for the NESDC, and have available a current Rabies Certificate for each dog.

SATURDAY – NOVEMBER 12: TRAINING CLINIC

Mushers can train their teams on the trail at Hill Village, and Mini-lectures will be held starting at 10 a.m. Learn more about Bikejoring and Skijoring with your dog, working as trail help during races, and how to protect your water supply. There will also be a Beginner's Clinic for new mushers.

SUNDAY – NOVEMBER 13: RIG RACE

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. on site. No need to pre-register on line.

Contacts:

Chris Hayes
802-875-1606
e-mail: vaportrail@vermontel.net

Jean Reed
978-346-9689
e-mail: jatreed@juno.com

Overnight camping free, fire permitted, port-a-potties, no drinking water , carry-in- carry-out trash

Directions: Profile Falls Recreation Area: NH 3A to Profile Falls Road (located at the Hill/Bristol Town Line). From I-93 take Exit 23. Follow NH 104 West to NH 3A South. Follow signs to Profile Falls, approximately 2 miles south of Bristol Center.
